

Fact sheet

Digital 2022 packages, by target groups

The combination of different screens makes it possible to target different target groups. We have five packages with different target groups to choose from. Being featured on our digital advertising spaces will increase your brand awareness and brand image. By positioning them in strategic spots in close proximity to retail spaces, they generate leads and new sales. With DOOH, we can present moving content and a variety of creative advertising formats, shown based on day, time, temperature or location.
